of the market continued strong, even on this reaction.
Government bonds were unchanged; other bonds steady.

2 p. m.—The money situation continued to absorb attention to the exclusion of all other financial questions today. The announcement of a reduction in the Bank of England rate was the foremost development of the day.
On our market the response was immediate, sterling exchanging declining still and negotiations for gold imports receiving a substantial impetus. There were rumors that a large engagement was in prospect and would be made known before the close of the week, but nothing definite on the matter materialized today.
Call money loaned again as high as 20 per cent, and the rate on standing loans was advanced from 6½ to 9 per cent. The stock market did not lose its firm undertone, even in the face of these discouraging conditions. But new buying was held in check and the tendency of prices was in the main lower.

Pennsylvania's earnings record for February were only a little less impressive than that for January. The increase in 17088, $2.216.300, compares with an increase of $1,708.000 increase in previous month and the $1.130.000 increase in new with $1,433.000. In December net increased $1,173.000.

The gross earnings of the Southern rallway for two-thirds of the current fiscal year are $3,500.000 in excess of gross during the same period of the preceding year. Of this, February contributed an increase of $1,000.000. Wall Street Startled by Withdrawal, the buildings down and within the next Points to Bitter Railroad War Later On.

NEW YORK, April 5.—Surprise was expressed in Wall Street yesterday at the retirement of James Speyer and Charles H. Tweed, of the firm of Speyer & Co., from the directorate of the Southern Pacific at the annual meeting of stockholders in Louisville. Following so closely upon the announcement of the decision of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., on February 25 of this year, to retire as members of the various railroad boards on which the individual members of the firm were directors, the withdrawal of Messrs. Speyer and Tweed from the Southern Pacific occasioned a good deal of comment in the financial district, where the inference was drawn that Speyer & Co. had decided to pursue a course similar to that adopted by Kuhn, Loeb & Co. in giving up their directorships on railroads.

At the office of Speyer & Co., it was stated that the retirement of the two members of the firm from the Southern Pacific board was without particular significance, and that it uid not foreshadow the resignations of members of the firm from the boards of other corporations with which they might be connected.

There was a disposition in some quarters to attribute the retirement of the Epeyer interests from the Southern Pacific as an indication of a more or less antagenistic spirit toward the Harriman interests, as an aftermath of the insurance investigation. It is said that the Speyer interests are friendly to the Fish administration in the Illinois Central, while it is generally known that the position of E. H. Harriman is exactly the reverse. It is predicted that events are shaping themselves for a bitter fight in the railroad world later on, and the alignment and coalition of certain important interests are regarded as significant. the retirement of James Speyer and Charles H. Tweed, of the firm of Spey-cepted the portfolio of minister of war for Venezuela.

According to the story, the offer was made through high officials at Washington who assured Genera! Bell that should he accept, he should have the privilege of naming two men to serve with him, one in the capacity of adjutant general and the other as inspector general and military secretary.

"General Bell," the dispatches continue, "selected his former assistant adjutant general, Col. Burt B. Bloom, and his former paymaster. Col. Frank Kimball. Colorado officials indorsed these selections of General Bell, and he has been notified that they are satisfactory to the Washington authorities. The three Coloradoans have been notified to hold themselves ready to go to the South American republic at a moment's notice."

General Bell, it is said, will in his new office take armed steps to suppress the filibustering expeditions said to have been organized by New York capitalists, against whose incursions President Castro has appealed to the United States for protection.
